

Title: A few recent results on planar percolative systems
Vincent Beffara - École Normale Supérieure de Lyon

Abstract: I will describe some recent progress in the study of critical two-dimensional percolation, in different setups (on periodic or random lattices), which all point at universal behavior under rather weak hypotheses. Unfortunately, some of the most natural questions remain open, and I will mention a few of the most embarrassing ones.